

Charles Stanley – Showjumping’s Financial Friend

At Charles Stanley we have always believed that people would much rather do business with someone they know and trust. It’s a relationship with our clients as important as the one between the rider and the horse in showjumping and why the sport appeals so much to us as a company. The perfect synergy, made for success.

So how do we establish trust? We have been a member of the London Stock Exchange since 1852 and we are one the UK’s leading independently-owned full service stockbroking, corporate finance and institutional advisory groups, so our pedigree is pretty good in the trust ‘stakes’. What about getting to know us? Well that ‘bit’ is even easier. We have a network of offices right across the UK. Take a look at our web site www.charles-stanley.co.uk and we are confident you will find us somewhere close to where you live.

We are so pleased to be a major part of the UK Showjumping scene through the Charles Stanley British Masters and we will be very visible at Southview from the 1st – 3rd of July this year, so please come and introduce yourself. Before then, why not get in touch with one of our offices and get them to look at just how we can help you and your financial affairs. It would be our pleasure to help.
